

THE MUSICIANS' BENEVOLENT FUND JAZZ NIGHT

Many of the finest musicians from Hampshire are joining forces to raise money for The Musicians' Benevolent Fund. Three popular local bands, of differing styles will take to the stage of The Concorde Club on Monday 14th November, for the 'Jazz, Swing, and Big Band Night'.

The bands taking part will be:

Dave Cox's 'Jazz Summit',
Tiger Tim's Ragamuffins
New Antonian's Swing Orchestra.

DAVE COX'S 'JAZZ SUMMIT'

'Jazz Summit' is an easy listening band playing a mix of jazz standards in the styles of Swing, Dixieland and Modern. Led by clarinettist, Dave Cox 'Jazz Summit' showcases the talents of local musicians and consists of Clarinet, Guitar, Double Bass and Drums. The band is constantly working, playing venues in London and the southern counties. They are a favourite at festivals and always attract a following. They play many weddings and venues and also play in the corporate sector where their reputation is high. They are a band to lift the spirits!

TIGER TIM'S RAGAMUFFINS

'Tiger Tim's Ragamuffins' play a wide variety of music from the early days of jazz through to the swing era. When he performs it is evident that Tiger Tim enjoys the music, and especially with these Ragamuffins. Ken Ames (yes, THE Ken Ames!) Banjo and Guitar, Clive Burton, Best Trombone in show and the world class Bassist, Pete Maxfield. Together we swing like the clappers and we hope you enjoy our renditions of all your favourite tunes.

THE NEW ANTONIAN'S SWING ORCHESTRA

Finally, The New Antonian's Swing Orchestra which was formed in 1993 and is acclaimed for maintaining the very best of Big Band tradition. The band's repertoire ranges from classic wartime Glenn Miller to the magic of Count Basie and Duke Ellington, from Frank Sinatra in the 50s, 60s and 70s to the modern swing music of Brian Setzer and Phil Collins. Even the music of the Blues Brothers finds a spot in the band's musical programme.

The 17-piece band, which plays extensively throughout southern England, is fronted by singer conductor Simon Probyn. The standard big band line-up packs a punch which is guaranteed to get toes tapping.

The Musicians Benevolent Fund provides help and support to musicians and their dependants and those in related occupations when illness, accident or old age result in stress or financial burdens, and offer grants where appropriate.

www.mbf.org.uk

The event takes place on Monday 14th November 2011 at the Concorde Club, Stoneham Lane, Eastleigh, Hampshire, S050 9HQ at 7:30pm.

Tickets: £10.00 (Members £9.00) are available from the club Box office 023 8061 3989

Non-members are welcome – Dress Smart Casual

For further information please contact Paul McKenna on 023 8044 0835 or paulevents@aol.com

www.musouthampton.org.uk